Classroom Happenings

Reading- We are working on pointing to words when reading and looking at the pictures and letters to help figure out unknown words in a text. Additionally, we have worked on sequencing and retelling stories.

Writing- We have been reading familiar stories and talking about what makes a story interesting and enjoyable to read; ex- authors describe events so that readers get a picture in their minds of what is happening, they provide many details when telling about something, illustrations are detailed and match the text, etc. The children will try to apply some of these ideas when working on their own writing. Additionally, we have been working on proper letter formation. Please help your child to remember that when writing we always start at the top!

Math-We have been learning different ways to represent numbers such as rote counting, reading and writing numerals, grouping numbers by fives and then adding on and counting objects in a scattered set.
